

Why is there a woman in here?!

You can ask the people responsible for this space to use the lawful single sex exemptions set out in the Equality Act

Did you know?

- That male and female spaces, like changing rooms, toilets, refuges, rape crisis centres, hospital wards, religious spaces and sports are under threat?
- That Labour says that a man can 'be' a woman simply by saying that he is one? Or vice-versa?
- That the Conservatives want to make this law? And the Lib Dems, SNP and Greens agree?
- That men and women who object have been assaulted and threatened?
- That lesbians and gays are being called transphobic for not wanting to have sex with members of the opposite sex?
